THE RALEIGH NEWS

VOL. XIV--NO. 76. RALEIGH, N. C., TUESDAY MORNING NOVEMBER 26, 1878. $5.00 PER ANNUM

IT IS AND IT ISN'T.

What the People and the Newspapers say About It.

WHAT "OLD DUPLIN" SAYS:

"Send me the NEWS, I want to see both sides of the Vance-Merrimon controversy. I have been taking the other paper but see nothing favorable to Vance in it. In fact the writers in that paper are evidently indisposed to do the Governor justice and to misrepresent the facts. For instance, 'Senex" in the Observer of the 19th, clearly misrepresents "Justice" reply to "Wake" in same issue. In regard to "Justice." I think it was exactly to the point. It stated in plain words that the will of a majority of the Democratic members of caucus would be the will of Gov. Vance. But how about Judge Merrimon's reply to Upchurch and others?

They ask him a plain question, "Will you abide the action of a majority of the Democratic caucus?" In the ½ column it takes to answer does he say one time that he will abide the will of the majority? If so I am too obtuse to see it. The Judge says the Democratic members have the right to elect the Senator. Of course they have, for with a majority in both Houses that fact is indisputable. Again the Judge says, "If they elect me I shall feel highly complimented, if however they shall select [observe the use of different verbs] some other person I will abide their action. Of course he will. How the d— can he help himself if they elect some other person. He takes particular pains you will notice to-say nothing about the caucus or the majority of the Democratic members. Yet his friends will no doubt claim that he pledges himself in this letter to abide the action of caucus. Was ever there anything so thin resorted to by so great a man? For Duplin county I can safely say that nine-tenths of our people are for Vance for United States Senator."

LETTER FROM RINGWOOD.

"We see that many correspondents are handling the Senatorial question. The people want the gallant and gifted Vance, who was so true and tried in times that tried mens souls and who still holds his own against combinations of undeserving men who are trying to keep him down. Let us stand by Vance in peace as he stood by us in war and not ignore or forget the services of this deserving patriot. To elect Vance unanimously will do honor to our Legislature and aid the party greatly in future elections." G. E. M.

WHAT THE NEWSPAPERS SAY.

The Wilmington Star and Sun, the Goldsboro Messenger and Roanoke News publish the correspondence without comment.

The Oxford Free Lance, Louisburg Times, Durham Tobacco Plant, and Alamance Gleaner, all agree that Senator Merrimon is committed to the action of the caucus.

The Southern Home says "it is evasive and shows the ear-marks of a keen lawyer who does not intend to be bound by an absolute pledge."

The Newbernian says "he comes out and declares his fealty to the honestly expressed will of the majority," and expresses the hope that "our distinguished Senator will publish no more letters on this question." That "his frinds already understand him."

Salisbury Watchman: He says frankly that it would be agreeable to him to be re-elected to the Senate. Certainly, Judge, but that aint answering the question.

The Concord Sun says "it settles the caucus trouble, but what will be done to trouble the caucus has not yet transpired."

The Concord Register says, "he does not say, Gentlemen, I will abide the decision of a majority of the Democratic members. It is warily worded but its gauzy language is too thin."

Davidson County Record says "it is an expression of intention to abide the action of caucus."

Asheville Citizen: "Gov. Vance is unqualifiedly committed, by every act of his life, by every and recent declarations, to the Democratic members elect. If he is not the choice of the party he does not wish it—certainly does not expect it. Senator Merrimon owes it to his party which he has before defeated in its expressed preference, and to the public, to be as emphatic in his declarations."

The Burke Blade says "it binds him not to bolt. So all the people the Blade has talked with on the subject regard it. The Blade further remarks that it smacks of persecution to longer question the Senators fealty in the premises.

Without further deliverance the Charlotte Observer "shall continue to regard the contest as a fight for the integrity of the party."

New North State: "It is as clear as mud."

Statesville Landmark: The only issue now before the people of North Carolina is, who shall succeed Mr. Merrimon as United States Senator? If the will of the people is triumphant, Gov. Vance will be elected on the first ballot.

OUTSIDE OPINION.

Detroit Free Press: The contest over the North Carolina Senatorship promises to be somewhat exciting. The leading candidates are Governor Vance and Senator Merrimon. The former will undoubtedly get the caucus nomination, but the latter hopes to have an independent following which will hold the balance of power. The chances are largely in favor of Vance.

New Orleans Democrat: Senator Merrimon, of North Carolina, announces his intention of being controlled by the Democratic caucus in the election of a successor. The principal candidates before the caucus will be the Senator and Gov. Vance, with the odds in Vance's favor. Merrimon was elected over Vance in 1872 by a combination of bolting Democrats and the Republicans.

What Hayes Will Harp Upon.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, Nov., 24.—In his forthcoming message the President will make the alleged outrages and violations of law in the South during the late Congressineal elections a prominent topic of comment. These will be condemned as forcibly depriving a large number of citizens in the specified localities of the rights conferred by both national and State authority, thus preventing results expressive of their will in the administration of public affairs. The subject will be presented to the consideration of Congress, for such action as the circumstances demand. Owing to the decision of the U. S. Supreme Court, that the Enforcement Act was unconstitutional, it not being in specific accordance with the fifteenth constitutional amendment, and the failure of the House in the forty-third Congress to pass the Senate bill designed to meet the judgement of that tribunal, there is no law to punish the class of cases affecting colored men, which the act was intended to reach. The law relative to the election of members of Congress, however, affords a remedy for some of the reported wrongs, inflicting a fine of $500 and imprisonment for one year, on any person found guilty of illegally prosecuting or obstructing the free exercise of voting, and a fine of $5.000 and imprisonment for not more 10 years, on those engaged in conspiracy for the some purpose.

By Telegraph to the News.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 25.—At a largely attended meeting of clergymen of this city, held to-day, at the suggestion of D. L. Moody, the evangelist, a committee was appointed to issue a call to the Evangelistical ministry and churches of the United States, to unite in the month of January following upon the week of prayer, in a consecrated effort for the revival of God's work throughout the whole land, and that in order to do this, they urge upon christian people to lay aside all conflicting engagements, social, ecclesiastical, literary, or otherwise, and that with united heart the church call upon God to reniew his work and stay the tide that threatens our institutions, political, social and religious. The committee will issue a call immediately.

By Telegraph to the News.

HALIFAX, Nov. 25.—The Marquis of Lorne and the Princess Louise had a grand reception to-day. They left the Sarmatian at 1:10 p. m., and were conveyed to the landing, the war vessels firing a royal salute and the yards being manned. The Vice-Regal party was received by the Duke of Edinburg, General McDougal, Vice-Admiral Inglefield, Lieutenant Governor Archibald, the principal members of the Dominion Government, and many naval, military and civil officers. The landing of the Marquis and Princess was greeted with vociterous cheering. The procession was at once formed and proceeded through the principal streets to the Province building, where the Marquis was sworn in as Governor. An address of welcome was then presented by the Mayor and corporation to which the Marquis replied. The procession then reformed and went by a circuitous route to the Admiralty House. The streets the whole way were gaily decorated and lined with people.

International Mail Service.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, Nov., 24.—A striking illustration of the extent and excellence of the arrangements for an international mail service which have resulted from the Postal Union, is given in an official publication received by our superintendent from the Berne Central Bureau. A resident of Chemnitz, Saxony, mailed at that place on 24th May a postal card addressed to himself, carrying a request to all postmasters to dispatch it successively and without loss of time to Alexandria, Singapore, Yokohama, San Francisco and New York, and thence to Chemnitz. His object was to win a wager that with the existing postal arrangements the circuit of the world could thus be made by postal matter within 120 days. The request was complied with and the card arrived in Chemnitz from New York on the 117th day after the date of the original mailing. The Postmaster General of Germany has caused this card to be photographed and transmitted a copy.

Action of Baltimore Bankers on Resumption.

By Telegraph to the News.

BALTIMORE, MD., Nov. 25.—The committee representing the Banks of Baltimore, whose conference with Secretary Sherman in Washington, Saturday last, on the subject of resumption, has already been published, submitted today to the representatives of the Associated Banks a formal report of their interview with the Secretary, which was most cordial, and expressing the hope that the frank expression of the views of Secretary Sherman, as presented, will be considered as sufficient to allay all apprehension here and elsewhere regarding the technical construction and operation of the Resumption Act. The committee also presented the following resolution:

"That, pending the early reassembling of Congress, and with the hope that some modification will be adopted by them in existing currency acts, we deem it premature and injudicious at this time to prescribe any line of policy which the banking interests of Baltimore may require hereafter." This was adopted.

Sueing Sheridan.

By Telegraph to the News.

NEW YORK, Nov., 25.—The case of Jas. A. Whalen against Gen. Sheridan was called to-day in the U. S. Court before Judge Wallace, but owing to the absence of B. F. Butler, one of the counsel for the plaintiff, the case went over until Monday next. The suit is brought to recover $416,000, for alleged losses incurred by the plaintiff through the action of Gen. Sheridan, Mr. Whalen claims that he was dispossessed from his sugar plantation in the Parish of St. Charles, near New Orleans, by order of Sheridan in 1867, while the latter was in command of New Orleans. Much testimony has already been taken by the commission.

D.

The Test of Reform.

Correspondence of the News.

One of the most important committees will be one to revise salaries from the highest official down to the lowest. It costs no more to live now than it did twenty years ago. We remember well when the pay of members of the Legislature was $3 per day, and there is no good reason why it should not be again reduced to that figure. In one sense the pay now received by our legislators is not too large. A man worthy to take a part in making the laws of a State like North Carolina, ought to earn five or six dollars a day, and some who serve the State in that way are capable of earning much more. But it cannot be denied, on the other hand, that the majority of members cannot or do not earn wages so high in their regular vocations, while the important consideration remains that the legislative salary should not be large enough to tempt the cupidity of office-seekers or to to support members for the remainder of the year, thus encouraging the development of a class of professional politicians. The theory of our Government is that the citizens, too numerous to meet together to dispatch their business, shall elect certain representatives to whom the power of the whole people is delegated, to come together and make the necessary laws. The legislators might not lay up much money, though the prudent ones could save something; but they would enjoy the proud consciousness of having been selected to represent their fellow-citizens and having done their duty. This salary would debar no poor man from taking office, for it is larger than the average of mechanical employments or clerkships—much larger than the average earnings of the people of this State. The saving, by this reduction would be considerable. It would be an example of economy which would be felt through every department of the public service. It would at once justify the saving of thousands by reducing other salaries, and lead to closer scrutiny of every form of expense. Just as good men would offer for the place at $4, the best representatives do not aspire to the Legislature for the pay, while, as we have said above, the smaller sum is reasonable pay for representatives of the people, both rich and poor. In fact, we look upon the reduction of the salaries of legislators as the opening test of a reform spirit, and demand it in the name of the people.

TAX PAYER.

A Dynamite Frolic.

Blue Ridge Blade.

On Friday morning a convict belonging to the night force at the Lick Log tunnel on the W. N. C. R. R., was thawing a charge of nitro-glycerine mixed with meal in a can over a fire. When 412 Fahrenheit was reached the darkey suddenly sailed fifty feet through the black air, landing at the mouth of the tunnel entirely nude—his body pitted with minute blisters. He walked coolly back to the fire and recovered his stirring paddle and a squirrel tail, which had served as an ornament to his head gear. In this Georgia major's uniform he was put to bed; but no apprehensions are entertained that serious injury will result from his brief æronautic tour. It is only two weeks since another convict fell 63 feet from a trestle near the mud-cut, but contrary to all expectations is still living. Verily the African is a hard bird to kill;

Evacuation Day and Its Celebration in New York.

By Telegraph to the News.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—A merry peal was rung out to-day by Trinity church chimes in commemoration of the evacuation day, and the day was celebrated by a parade of the Seventh Regiment. The veterans of the Seventh Regiment under Col. Pond also fell into column and the Union, State and city flags were for the first time hoisted on the new Regimental Armory at 66th and 67th Streets and Park and Lexington avenues. The veterans of the war of 1812, under Col. Daly, now diminished to about 18 men, paraded in honor of the occasion.

Winter Prophecies.

Now that the cold weather is steadily creeping upon us, many comments with regard to the approaching winter are the order of the day. Although meteorological observers have made during the last fifty years many successful prognostications as to the approach of cold or storm, weather, with a remarkable degree of faithful attention to the record of observations has been shown by the savants of all countries, yet science has not advanced so far yet as to assure us with certainty, for at least a few weeks in advance, of the change of weather. Among the farmers, however, the prognostication of cold weather seems to be a comparatively easy matter, and it has been generally remarked in our country exchanges lately that the prognostications of the farmers are that the coming winter will be a severe one.

The Indictment of Swepson.

Wilmington Star.

The indictment of George W. Swepson by a Wake county grand jury was the chief event of the past week in North Carolina. Time, it is true, has dulled the public resentment against the ring which feathered the nests of its members and employees by remorselessly plundering the people of the State. But there is enough of the old feeling of outraged justice left in the land to create a flutter when the news goes forth that one whose name has been popularly associated with these crimes has at last been arraigned for trial. Nobody has a right to prejudge Mr. Swepson's case. He is in the hands of the law. But there is no prejudice in the statement that many people in North Carolina have waited, lo these many years, for just the action that the grand jury of Wake has taken.

A New Disinfectant.

A disinfectant for hospital use and for general disinfecting purposes is recommended by Dr. John Day. It is composed of one part of retified oil of turpentine, seven parts of benzine, and five drops of oil of valerian to each ounce of the mixture. Each of the ingredients is said to possess the power of absorbing the oxygen of the atmosphere and of converting it into deroxide hydrogen, a substance similar in its effects to ozone. Books, letters, newspapers, clothing, carpets, wall paper, may be treated with this sort of disinfectant without injury. Its action is very persistent.

Future Radical Vigor.

Philadelphia Record.

Already the wind has changed to a new quarter. It appears that Federal officials in the South have been partly responsible for the failure to get out the negro vote. Under the soft treading sway of President Hayes the postmasters, the customs gentry, marshals, supervisors and the like, have forgotten the chief end of the office-holding man. They are to be admonished that hereafter they must take a hand in an organized effort to do away with the solid South.

The Blessed Bees.

A Michigan bee-raiser has written a book about the 'Blessed Bees," who have brought him a fair fortune. But for his statistics one would have some difficulty in believing him. He went into the business as other men go into merchandise or any other pursuit; he gave his whole time and thought to it, and so superior was his honey that he could obtain the highest market price in New York. He is a young man and urges this branch of industry upon others with great warmth. The sum total of the capital invested was $830.-81; his income, exclusive of all expenses, was $3,966.53.

The Chinese at Washington.

N. Y Sun.

The Chinese embassy promises to be the social sensation of the winter. It is well manned, 15 or 18 in all are on its list, and came well boxed. It is probably the only legation that ever came here with grave doubts as to the capacity of Washington markets, and no small share of the enormous truckloads of baggage they brought was made up of Chinese delicacies. In their establishments they have but two servants not of Chinese birth. One of them, a woman, is authority for the story that the first night one of the Chinamen spent in his bed-room here he did not discover that the bed clothes could be folded down, and shivered all the night through on the outside of the coverlid. There is another and better story which has better authority. The house they occupy was leased furnished, and when the legation took possession the furniture in the parlors was covered with white linen wraps. There was a deal of talking when this furniture was examined.

None of the Chinese liked it, and the end was it was ordered away. White, every one knows, probably, is the Chinese mourning color. A furniture dray was backed up to the door of the big house on F street in which the lefurniture loaded on it, when, tipping over a chair, the cover slipped from it, and the crimson silk showed itself. The Chinamen saw it, and ordered the furniture unloaded. The covers were slipped off and no further objection existed. They are a studious set. Nearly every member of the legation is studying English, and the work of acquainting themselves with the institutions and working of this government appears to be systematically divided among them. At night, every room in the house is lighted to the full extent of its gas jets. No one knows precisely why. Lately they have put out their flag—a great ensign of orange yellow silk, with the imperial five-toed dragon in black.

The Would-be Assassin's Fate.

It is generally expected at Madrid that if Moncasi is sentenced to death, the King will exercise his prerogative of pardon. The mode of execution in Spain is a somewhat barbarous one, as the condemned man is placed upon a chair, as in a sitting position, and then strangled. The execution takes place in public, and after it is over, the body is placed upon a scaffold, and exposed to view several hours, with monks in the somber garb of penitents surrounding it and reciting prayers for the dead.

Need of Schools for Mechanics.

The editor of the American Builder, in looking over the statistics of education in the United States observes some facts which strike him as curious, for instance, that while there are 597 colleges, universities, law, medical and theological schools, there are only 83 schools for the higher mechanical and scientific education, including all schools of design, mining and engineering, scientific and mechanical schools. "No wonder," he remarks, "that many trained preachers in this country go hungry to bed, while thousands of enterprising mechanics and artisans are floundering in a sea of ignorance in search of higher scientific attainments.

T'will Work No Change;

Resumption will not send the price of commodities up or down. In that respect its advantages have been anticipated. But it will restore confidence. Contracts can be made after the 1st of January which will not be disturbed by a lying standard of legal tender. Merchants and manufacturers can go about their business without the haunting fear that the best laid schemes may be defeated in the end by an irredeemable and fluctuating currency, against whose ups and downs the wit of man cannot provide.

Pensioning Ex-Confederates.

A proposition, it is said, is now pending in the Georgia Legislature to grant special privileges to ex-Confederates who have been disabled by wounds or the loss of limbs, by exempting them from taxation under State and county levies. A State has the right to pension its own citizens, where such an act does not come in conflict with United States laws, and this being the case other Southern States will likely follow this example.

Destroyed the Pleasure.

At a funeral the undertaker arranged for the husband and mother-in-law to ride in the same carriage. "Must I," said the broken hearted man—"must I ride with that awful woman?" "I think you will have to," answered the undertaker. "Well, if I must, I must," replied he; "but to ride with her destroys all the pleasure of the occasion!"

TUESDAY.....NOVEMBER, 26 1878

The Swepson Indictment.

That was a very extraordinary and very pathetic speech Mr. Fuller made for his client, Mr. Swepson, in the Criminal Court of Wake county last week. Of course Mr. Fuller, in his zeal, did not purposely suppress some very important facts connected with the prosecution of Swepson. A bill of indictment was found by the grand jury of the Criminal Court of Wake county last week, charging Geo. W. Swepson and Milton S. Littlefield with obtaining $4,000 000 in bonds of the St te under false pretences. In the language of the original bill, these "persecuted gentlemen" combined, conspired, confederated and agreed together, and with divers other persons by divers false pretences and subtle means and devices, obtained and acquired to themselves, and from the State of North Carolina, divers bonds of the value of $1,000, known as special tax bonds to the amount of ☞ FOUR MILLION DOLLARS, and and cheated and defrauded the State of the value thereof.

On the 19th of August, 1868, and the 29th of January, 1869, they procured an Act of the Legislature amending the charter of the Western North Carolina Railroad Company. They were designated by the Act commissioners to open books of subscription for the capital stock. On the 15th of October, 1868, they delivered to the board of internal improvements in the State a false and fraudulent certificate, in which it was certified that $308,500 had been duly subscribed to said stock, and afterwards other large sums, and that five per cent. thereof had been paid in cash. This was false and was known to them to be false when they signed the certificate. Upon this false certificate the $4,000,000 bonds were issued.

Mr. Fuller claims that $300,000 was honestly expended in the construction of the road. And that $140,000 additional has been secured to the State by compromise.

To understand the compromise it is necessary to go back to the ineception of the criminal prosecution against Swepson in 1871. At the instance of Governor Caldwell Swepson was indicted in Buncombe county in January 1871. About the same time bills were found in Madison county and also in Wake county. A compromise was effected by which Swepson secured to the State $140,000, and these several indictments were dismissed.

At June term 1874 of Wake Superior Court, the gand jury made a presentment against Swepson and Littlefield. At the following October Term, at the dictment was found. Col. Fuller's forbearance "to fittingly characterize this attempt to go back on contract" leaves us ignorant as to the motives of Gov. Caldwell in the premises.

We quote from vol. 79. North Carolina Supreme Court Reports·

* * * * *

"At the April Term, 1875 of Wake Superior Court, "in the absence of the counsel as retained, the counsel for Swepson moved that a verdict of not guilty should be entered for him, on the ground that as he alleged the action had been compromised·

The motion was opposed by the solicitor, but the Judge ordered a jury to be impannelled and a verdict of not guilty to be entered, which was done. The State was not ready for trial and its material witnesses were not present, and no witnesses for the State were examined. An appeal was asked by the State and refused. The counsel for the State then prepared a statement of the facts and asked that they be made a part of the record, which the Judge also refused. At January term 1876 this court ordered a certiorari and mandamus to issue. Before any return was made the Judge [Watt] resigned. A mandamus issued against the clerk of the Superior court of Wake county also failed to bring up the case. A mandamus was then ordered to issue against the Judge who should hold the next term of Wake Superior court directing him to inquire into the alleged facts, and if they be found true to cause the defendant to be again arrested and put on his trial on the indictment."

If the facts alleged be true it can not be denied that the Judge before whom the alleged proceeding took place was ignorant or scandalously forgetful of his duties, and that one whom a grand jury had found fit to be tried for a serious offence has escaped a fair trial by management and fraud.

It must be clear that in a case snch as is presented by the affidavit—which for the present purpose only, we are obliged to assume to be true—the State ought to have some remedy. Guilt can not be allowed to protect itself by fraud and corruption, or else, the tribunals of justice become dens of thieves, and law as administered in them is a machine to punish the weak and screen the powerful. But the remedy is not to be had in this Court. The jurisdiction of this Court with few exceptions is wholly appellate. It has no original jurisdiction to require a Superior Court to put an acquitted person again on trial, or to inquire whether or not the acquittal was procured by his fraud. The motion must be refused; but this refusal does not imply a failure of justice. There is a remedy not without precedent or authority for its use, plain, and not of infrequent use, laid down in the elementary works on criminal law, and supported by the adjudications of respectable Courts.

From these authorities it seems that the Solicitor may with, and perhaps without, the consent of the Judge cause the defendant to be again arrested and put on trial on the old bill; or if no statute of limitation bars, he may send a new bill to the grand jury, and on its being found, proceed to trial of the defendant as usual, disregarding the former verdict and judgment as nullities on account of the fraud in procuring them.

Hence the action of the State in procuring the indictment against Swepson and Littlefield in the Criminal Court of Wake county. It is the prosecution started by Gov. Caldwell in 1871 and renewed by him in 1874. If Swepson has escaped "a air trial by management and fraud" every honest man in the land will commend the action of the State in bringing him to trial again.

Dismal Swamp Canal.

Baltimore Sun.

The resolution passed by the Chicago Commercial Convention in favor of improving the inland water communication between Virginia and North Carolina was offered by Mr. Beasley, formerly of North Carolina, but now residing in Baltimore. From his familiarity with the matter he was appointed by Governor Vance to represent North Carolina in the convention. His idea was that one of the two existing water ways—the Chesapeake and Albemarle or the Dismal Swamp canal—be chosen for the improvement. The government has an interest of five-twelfths already in the Dismal Swamp canal, and from surveys made by Mr. Hutton, at present the civil engineer of the Baltimore harbor board, he reported to the War Department that the improvement of the latter canal in the manner proposed could be made for one hundred and eighty thousand dollars. His estimates were based on the work to be done, which was to make it eight or nine feet deep and sixty feet wide, so as to allow of the easy passage of ocean steamships of 1,000 tons. Mr. Beasley's resolution, as adopted by the convention, recommended the opening of a suitable and cheap water line, to be permanently navigable by steamships of 1,000 tons, between the waters of Virginia and North Carolina, and thus avoiding the dangers of Cape Hatteras. The total cost, including the redemption of outstanding bonds at fifty cents on the dollar, he assumes would be within $700,000, which, by increase of tolls and the organization of a sinking fund, would, he estimates, reimburse the government the entire cost of the canal in the course of twenty or twenty-two years and leave it thenceforward free to navigation—the government in the meanwhile having control of the canal.

Actualities and Possibilities of the Afghan Campaign.

New York Times.

The British capture of Fort Ali-Musjid, commanding the entrance to the Kuyber Pass, illustrates the somewhat obvious facts that forty-pound shells are rather more than a match for seven-pounders, even when the latter are fired from behind strong earth works. The British advance into Afghanistan is not likely to be a mere military promenade, in spite of the ease with which the first victory has been obtained. But the result of the operations of the invaders will depend mainly on the ability of certain bodies of disciplined soldiers, bearing with them the newest and most improved weapons of destruction, to surmount the physical obstacles which separate them from other bodies of imperfectly trained troops, bearing arms of inferior range and calibre. Wherever fairly confronted, the triumph of science and training over imperfect knowledge and equipment is certain. That fact, however, only lends new emphasis to the totally indefensible character of this unprovoked raid of a superior race on an inferior one. A European power that should declare war against a weak neighbor because his attitude was unfriendly, would provoke the indignant remonstrance of all civilized nations. In becoming an Asiatic power, England seems to consider herself free to adopt the international ethics of Oriental despotisms.

One Woman Worsted.

New York World.

Miss Lewis, of Liverpool, formally and in set terms—in original poetry, it was—renounced her lover, Mr. Molyneux; called him a "deceiver," bade him "go," and declared that hereafter she would be dead to him; then, when he took her at her word and married another woman, sued him for breach of promise. The jury gave her £20 damages, but Mr. Justice Mainsty declined to give her a certificate of costs, so that she is actually out of pocket. The judge said the action was one which should never have been brought, and that she had been very fortunate in finding a jury who would give her damages for the loss of a man whom she had "spurned and despised until he married another woman."

Republican Spendthrifts.

New York World.

The town of De Ruyter, Madison county, N. Y., has voted to repudiate railroad bonds, just as the State of Minnesota has refused to make any arrangement for the payment of its long-suffering creditors. These, however, being Republican strongholds, we are not likely to hear so much from our esteemed Republican cotemporaries of the turpitude of repudiation. In this connection we may say that the Republican majority of the Vermont Legislature has solidly voted down the proposition of the Democratic minority to reduce the pay of legislators to $150 and mileage.

Journalistic Civilities.

New York World.

A St. Louis paper says of the "two old thieves" who edit another St. Louis paper, that "they are continually breaking out in indecent personalities. Fifty years of crime and debauchery in this community have not taught them that earth is tired of them and hell is waiting for them, and they signal each recovery from the delirium tremens with a fresh reference to some person connected with" the rival organ. Fortunately for the "two old thieves" in question the gentleman who thus vehemently attacks them has "done time" for defrauding the revenue.

Maine's Queer Predicament.

New York Times.

The Republican majority in the State of Maine will be compelled to choose between the Democratic and Greenback candidates for Governor, there having been no choice by the people, and the State Constitution providing that the House (which the Democrats and Greenbackers will control) shall submit to the Senate the names of two of the candidates from whom to choose the Governor. Dr. Garcelon, the Democratic candidate, holds pronounced specie-resumption views, while Mr. Smith, Greenbacker, agrees with Solon Chase that it would be desirable to have greenbacks made good as gold, but coin redemption is impracticable and unnecessary.

The New York Times on the Roll Call.

The Raleigh (N. C.) News is a Democratic paper of the ultra sort, and does not mean to be sarcastic when it says: "Not until Hon. George M. Adams, the able and conscientious Clerk of the House of Representatives, completes the roll of the Forty-sixth Congress will the Democratic mortality be definitely ascertained." The News' remark, unfortunately, is very true.

A CERTAIN AND SPEEDY

CURE FOR SCROFULA.

FACTS ARE STUBBORN THINGS!

TRADE MARK TRADE MARK

(Registered.)

A BRIEF HISTORY:

The following is from the Raleigh News, and was a voluntary insertion and not an advertisement:

"Years ago an old Indian left a receipt for curing Scrofula with Mrs Person's father. Mrs. Person lives in Franklinton, or in that section. A child was born to Mrs. Person, and it had the Scrofula. The doctors gave it up to die. She thought of that receipt, that was now old and musty, and hid away in an upstairs drawer. She concluded if the child was bound to die, it wouldn't hurt to follow that receipt. She went out and gathered the herb, got the whiskey, and did as directed to the child. Her child now lives, well and hearty. More than this: Only a few months since a South Carolinian, whose name has slipped us, was suffering with some scrofulous affection on the heel. He had been to the Hot Springs in Arkansas, and from there he went to Kittrell Springs. Nothing did him any good. At Kittrell's they told him of Mrs. Person's recipe, and Dr. wrote to Mrs. Person if she cured that South Carolinian her receipt was worth money. And the South Carolinian sent her word if she cured him he would give her five hundred dollars. She sent him directions what to do, and added if they cured him he could send her twenty-five dollars; she wouldn't ask five hundred. The South Carolinian went home, and shortly afterward sent Mrs. Person a check for twenty-five dollars, and wrote the most grateful letter he knew how. Bless those old Indians. We would like to have one for a near neighbor."

UNEQUALLED AS A BLOOD PURIFIER.

MRS. JOE PERSON:

The medicine I purchased of you last winter proved of lasting benefit to my son, who was troubled with 27 running sores, some of them quite large, and of a scrofulous nature. In less than three weeks after commencing the use of your remedy, he was perfectly restored, and is to-day quite sound and healthy. AS A TONIC AND BLOOD PURIFIER IT HAS NO EQUAL. Hoping that you may be spared for many years of usefulness, I remain,

Very respectfully,

T. J. STOKES.

Louisburg, N. C., May 22, '78.

AS A TONIC AND ALTERATIVE

MOORESVILLE, IREDELL Co., N. C.

Being desirous of adding my testimonial to others, concerning the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy for Scrofula, I take pleasure in saying that as a tonic and alterative I do not think it has an equal. I have fairly tested it, and after trying Vegetine, Sarsaparilla, Vinegar Bitters, and various other remedies, I have no hesitation in pronouncing it far superior to any TONIC I have ever used. When I commenced using Mrs Person's Remedy I was very weak, complection sallow, and now I am WELL,

Respectfully your friend,

MRS. H. T. BROWN.

Sept. 26, 1878,

THREE CHILDREN IN THREE WEEKS.

CASTALIA, N. C.

MRS. JOE PERSON:

Dear Madame—Your letter has been received, and on account of being absent from home for a week or two, have not had the opportunity to answer it. I certainly will take great pleasure in doing all that is within my power towards getting you patients for treatment of Scrofula. I hardly know how to express my gratitude to you for curing my three little children. They took medicine from my family physician for about two years, with scarcely any relief at all. I tried your remedy, and in less than three weeks they were all perfectly cured, and have never shown any sign of breaking out again. I feel very thankful to you. I can safely say that I believe your remedy to be a certain cure for Scrofula. If I can ever be of any service to you in any way, I want you to be sure and call on me. Yours truly,

WM. H. ARRINGTON.

"It will Cure if Fairly Tested."

It gives me much pleasure to be able to state that I have derived an effectual cure of Scrofula from the use of Mrs. Joe Person's remedy for that disease. I had suffered from Scrofula for more than three years, and had despaired of ever getting well. I was treated during that time by three very eminent physicians, without any good result. I then went to the National Surgical Institute, at Atlanta, Ga., and was treated there more than two months, with no better result than my family physicians met with. After I returned from the Institute I was persuaded to try Mrs. Person's remedy, and I had not used it more than a week before I discovered its curative and healing properties. My sores soon began to heal, and the color of my skin changed as fast as the sores healed. I had not thought of ever getting well again, but my hopes increased, my low spiritedness fled before the remedy, and I am now enjoying splendid health and am in good spirits. The remedy is mild as a purgative, and a strong tonic; it will heal the most stubborn sore in three weeks if taken regularly. It is my opinion that it should be taken some time after the sore is healed, to remove the cause of its effects. It should be taken regularly by all means, for I have sometimes neglected it, from the pressure of business, and in all cases found that the cure already made would commence to retrograde, and for this alone it should be taken regularly until an effectual cure is completed. Nothing should prevent regularity in the use of the remedy and it should be taken at the proper time. I would recommend to all who are suffering from Scrofula to try it. It will surely cure you if you give it a fair test. I speak from experience, and not from hearsay. I am a grateful recipient of a cure from the use of it and I am under many and lasting obligations to Mrs. Person for the great relief I have obtained from its use. Sufferers, try it and be cured, is my advice.

I am, respectfully,

JAMES A. MORRIS.

KITTRELLS, N. C.

My receipt for the cure of Scrofula has been tried by me with the most unprecedented success for the last twelve years, and I have no hesitation in recommending it as a sovereign cure for that disease and as a general Tonic and Blood Purifier. It is everywhere giving perfect satisfaction, while my experience with it is too limited for me to especially recommend it for other diseases, I believe it will ultimately prove to be of benefit in all cases arising from impurity of the blood and probably for other diseases.

A CASE OF CANCER.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Aug. '2, 18 8.

MRS. JOE PERSON:

Dear Madam—I have been using your Remedy for scrofula over five months as an experiment for cancer. The cancer is of long standing; the doctors have been treating it, more or less, for twelve years, it has taken on my upper lip and a good part of my nose. When I began to use your Remedy it was growing rapidly worse, but the medicine seemed to check it very soon, and it has now been about eight or nine, except a out two months ago, the medicine gave out, and I was without several days. It then seemed to start anew, and grew worse very fast until I had taken the medicine about 5 weeks, since then it has not changed much. I think it would have cured the medicine soon enough, it would have cured me.

For more than a year before using your medicine, I was troubled very much with a disease of the heart an irregularity in its action. It would miss every third beat for hours, then at other times it would increase in its action, and run up to 20 beats per minute. Since using your medicine I am almost entirely relieved of this, rarely feel it, and then not enough to speak of it. I would recommend any one suffering with heart disease to try your medicine. As a Tonic and Alterative, I do not think it has any superior. I have been using all the most powerful Alteratives known to the medical profession for the last 12 years and I know of none superior to this. I think your medicine is destined to be a great blessing to the afflicted. Let every one that needs a Tonic or an Alterative give it a trial, and I do not think they will be disappointed.

Very truly and Respectfully,

JOHN BUIE, Box 141, Fayetteville, N. C.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——The Spring time has come.

——The ladies of the First Presbyterian church have a festival Friday evening.

——A child of Thomas Bingham died Sunday afternoon at his home near Auburn.

——W H Leatherwood was yesterday appointed a Commissioner of the county of Haywood.

——A Drummer's license was sent yesterday from the State Treasury to A L. Ellett & Co, Richmond, Va.

——The colored people had a jubilee at the Methodist church last evening, at which the Oak City Band furnished the music.

——Those in need of groceries or farm supplies of any kind, will do well to read the new local advertisement of that excellent firm, Messrs. Rand & Barbee Bros.

——The Register of Deeds desires the registrars at the polling places of Cedar Fork and Little River townships to bring in the poll and registration books, as required by law.

——Sportsmen complain, and very justly, of the bad practice among the ruralists of trapping quail. Quantities are on sale in the market daily. It is evident that a law for the protection of game is badly needed in this county.

——Mr. J. Higgs is having the Smith house prepared for its new uses as a hotel on the European plan. The new arrangements will be perfected this evening, and he will occupy the building. The establishment will be called the Higgs House.

——The dirt from the sewer cutting should be hauled away. It is understood that parties desiring to use it will be allowed to do so upon application. It will soon, under the influence of rains, make the street worse than it was during the last rain.

——The city tax collector says that the days of grace are now nearly past. He states that taxes must be paid by the beginning of December. Citizen Royster sits in his den at the Market House, taking in the shekels, but reports that they don't come in very rapidly.

George Ziegler, the well and favorably known cigar maker and tobacconist, left on Saturday for his former home in St. Louis. A host of friends wish him a pleasant journey and success wherever he may go.

U. S. Circuit Court.

This court was opened yesterday by Marshal J. B. Hill, but was at once adjourned until to-day. It will again adjourn until to-morrow, when Judge Brooks will arrive. Judge Bond will not be present.

Convicts.

Sheriff C. C. Sanford, of Davie county, reinforced the Penitentiary gang by the addition of a couple of convicts. These are John Young, buggery, life at hard labor, and Silas Dulan, larceny one year.

Could it be Done.

One of the officials in the Government building makes a suggestion, which if the plan be practicable would prove a great convenience. It is that the telegraph office be in the Government building. It is not know whether such an arrangement can be made, so the idea is merely thrown out. It is now the intention to move the office to the store now occupied by Pescud, Lee & Co., as soon as that firm shall have vacated it.

For the Holidays.

The new advertisement of M. T. Leach will prove very attractive to those who relish the good things of this life. That excellent dealer will have one of the choicest and most complete stocks of confectioneries shown here during Christmas time. The supply of staple and heavy goods will be large. The stock is in all respects complete and offered at bottom prices. Store on Wilmington street.

Coroner's Inquest.

Coroner Hampson held an inquest over the body of Natt. M. Shipp in Oak Grove Township yesterday. Shipp started after dinner to visit a neighbor's, about a mile away and had gone about half the distance, when he was found dead in the path a little before sunset. He was about 59 years of age. A jury was empaneled which rendered a verdict that the cause of death was disease of the heart.

Hurt in a Gin.

Mr. Doc. Hutchinson, a well known merchant and farmer, living in Barton's Creek township, was on Saturday last the victim of a terrible acsident. While at work ginning cotton, his right hand by some means was caught, and the terrible teeth tore the flesh off the hand and lower arm, mangling it in a shocking manner. The wounded member will, perhaps, require amputation.

The Colored Graded School.

The teachers and friends of this school, which is located in the Second Baptist Church, propose giving an oyster supper in the school room next Thursday evening, at which time a bountiful supply of edibles of all kinds will be provided. As the money received is to be applied to the payment of the debt contracted for the school desks, it is hoped that the colored people will attend and contribute liberally.

First Presbyterian Church.

The promised entertainment by the ladies of the 1st Presbyterian church will be given at the Session Room of the church on Friday evening the 29th. Oysters prepared in every way will be served, also Ice Cream and everything else that can tempt the appetite may be expected.

Diphtheria.

A gentleman last evening spoke of an outbreak of the dreaded diphtheria at a point some miles from Apex, which is most singular, yet fatal. It is stated to attack the head, not the throat, and to almost invariably prove fatal. The disease, strange to say, while virulent in the country, does not affect children in any number in the towns. This matter deserves attention and investigation. There has not been a great mortality in this section of the State, and the disease is not feared as it is in the western counties, where its ravages have been so frightful.

Personals.

Mr. J. A. Bonitz, the clever editor of that admirable journal, the Goldsboro Messenger, honored the NEWS with a call yesterday.

Maj. A. A. McKethan, Fayetteville, is registered at the Yarborough.

Hon. A. M. Waddell, of Wilmington, is in the city, en route to Washington city, to resume his Congressional duties.

Young Men's Christian Association.

A meeting of this Association will be held in the room in rear of Enniss' book store, Fayetteville street, this evening, at 7.30 o'clock. The punctual attendance of every member is desired, as the Association is desirous of at once making arrangements to aid the poor, whose condition demands prompt action. Committees will be appointed and the city re-districted. The work will be prosecuted vigorously and a vast amount is to be done. The intention of the Association is to do more than ever in the noble work of helping the poor and the suffering. Times are hard and the prognosticators say the winter will be excessively cold. So it is apparent that the members must be vigorous to meet the requirements of those over whose welfare they so kindly watch, and to whose needs they will minister.

The Junior Debating Club.

The public spirited young gentlemen of this club last evening favored the public with a second debate, which attracted a refined audience to the House of Commons. It is pleasant to witness the progress these youths make, as well as their profitable method of passing time and improving their minds, in a manner both agreeable to themselves and the public. The subject discussed last evening was: Is Commerce more beneficial to the world than Agriculture? Messrs. W. R. Andrews, Geo. H. Gorman and Theo. N. Smith made able speeches on the commercial side of the question, while Messrs. A. R. Flemming, W. C. Tucker and John C. Lewis favored the agricultural.

The appreciation and enjoyment of the auditory were manifested. The speeches concluded, it was decided that the affirmative, or Commercial side, were the winners. The gold badge which the Club give that member whose speech is adjudged most meritorious, was then presented to Master Geo. H. Gorman, in a few pleasant remarks by E. R. Stamps, Esq. Master W. R. Andrews is the wearer of the one given at the first debate.

Gave Himself Away.

A portly landlord of one of the hotels here, a day or so ago since arrested a pair of fine pigs which frequented his lot, and cooped them up. He then inserted a notice in the papers, describing minutely the appearance and markings of the porkers, and in it stated that the owner, by calling and describing his property, could take them away. The morning the notice appeared, the landlord was aroused at an early hour by a colored man, who said he had come after the pigs. He was at once asked to describe them, which he did with such exactness as to leave no doubt of his being the rightful owner. He was accordingly allowed to take away the pigs. About a couple of hours later came a white man, who desired to get his pigs, thanking the amateur pound keeper for his care of them. The latter was unable at first to see the affair in his true light, but soon it dawned upon him that the bright darkey had unfairly gotten the pigs. Still he could not understand how he could have so perfectly identified them, but was horrified when he was shown that his own description, thoughtlessly inserted, had given him away. There was but one way out of the difficulty and this was taken—he paid the owner $12 for the pigs.

From the American Register, published in Paris:

Amongst the interesting items of literary intelligence in Paris at the present time, it may be mentioned that Madame Durand, better known to the world of readers under the name of Henry Greville, has made a contract with Miss Helen S. Conley, a correspondent of the New York Evening Post, whereby she will hereafter translate all of Henry Greville's novels from the original manuscript, in French, into English, for their publication in America simultaneously with their appearance in Paris. By this arrangement they will retain all their flavor, Miss Stanley having both the ability and conscientiousness requisite for doing them justice. She has just finished translating "L'AIMEE, OR, A FRIEND," and the manuscript of it has been forwarded from Paris to T. B Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, who will publish it in America, simultaneously with its appearance in Paris, in uniform style and price with their editions of "Sonia," "Saveli's Explanation," and "Gabrielle," by the same author, issued by them. The scene of the story of "L'AIMEE, OR, A FRIEND," is laid in Paris, at the present time, and shows eminently Henry Greville's great talent for analyzing character. She draws her pictures in a way she possesses above all others, and this story of French home life in Paris will touch many hearts, as it shows how the love of a true and good woman will meet with its reward and triumph at the last. Had Henry Greville never written another work, this one alone would establish her fame.

The New Stock Speculations.

The new combination of operating in stocks which Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers N. Y., have inaugurated, is attracting unusual attention in financial circles, by reasons of its remarkable success. B. F. Comstock, of Providence, invested nine times and made over $5,000 in three months by using from $50 to $400 capital. By this system, orders from thousands of customers in various sums are pooled into one immense capital, and operated as a mighty whole, thus giving to each shareholder all the advantages of vast capital and shrewdest skill. Profits are divided every 30 days. Any amount from $10 to $75,000 can be used in Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s combinations with equal proportionate success. $15 will make $75 profit in the month. $200 will return $1,600 or 8 per cent. on the stock, and so on as the market varies. The new circular gives "two unerring rules for success," and shows how any one can operate profitably. Mailed free, Stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. FOR RENT OR FOR SALE.

CITY LOTS
AND
County Property to Let for the Year 1879.

On Saturday, the 14th day of December next, I will let at public outcry, at the Court House door in Raleigh, the stores, shops, houses and lots, belonging to Mrs. Mary A. Morehead, in the city of Raleigh, on Fayetteville, Hargett, Wilmington, Salisbury and Blount streets, respectively, and the vacant lots No. 203 and 219 East street, not already leased; also the following tract of land in Wake county: 500 acres adjoining Mrs. Kimbro Jones, P. F. Faison and others, 250 acres known as the Vandergrift land, 221 acres on Rocky Branch, adjoining W. J. Crowder and others, the Emery tract, near Tupper's X Roads the Hartsfield place adjoining Sanders and others. Terms: Bonds and security required, payable in quarterly installments. W. K DAVIS,
Nov. 18, 3.8. Guardian.

RARE CHANCE FOR INVESTMENT.

Valuable Property in the Heart of the City for Sale,

Will be sold at public auction, on the premises, on Wednesday, the 3d day of December ensuing, the property on which I reside, situated on Wilmington street, within 150 yards of the Market House, containing in all about 3 4 acres of land, and lying beautifully for cotton lots. Besides the improved office lot, it has a frontage on the street of 100 feet, running back 238 feet. It is now the only desirable lot to be had near the centre of the city for compressing cotton which will pay any cotton dealers better than any investment they can make. Both Wilmington and Charlotte have tried them greatly to their advantage. Terms one-third cash, and balance in one and two years, with 8per cent. interest. Apply to Jas. M. Towls, on the premises, or Messrs. Battle & Mordecai, at their office. nov18-tf
